- Decrease in the number of partner salons caused by the hurricane in last October has steadily recovered since the end of $1^{\text {st }}$ quarter; however, it was not able to reach to the same level at the end of last year.
- In the hair care product category, new product Elujuda was launched in February 2013. In addition to the existing leave-in treatment effect, this new product leads to supple, easy-to-move softness on hair. This new feature was focused on the sales activities, resulting in the good start to the introduction of the product.
- In the permanent wave product category, new beauty technique of Highlight Smoothing Menu(*), utilized by core straightening product Liscio, was launched.
* Highlight Smoothing Menu means salon technique to provide smooth texture on even super damaged highlighted hair by hair color chemicals such as permanent color or bleaching products.

- Impact on sales decrease from a boycott of Japanese products due to Senkaku Island dispute has been slowing down after the Chinese New Year (in February).
- 2013 Policy Announcement to salon business owner was taken place, and made a presentation about market environment in China, changing in customer needs and salon business solution. Seminars and workshops for seasonal hair color choice and perm design suitable to each individual were also taken place at local areas all over China. Workshops lead by Japanese hair designers have been resumed and educational activities are actively promoted.
- In the permanent wave products category, newly introduced products in the beginning of the year (NIGELLE TG/CMC PERM) and liquid digital perming products (KNOTEUR SH-L) lead to the substantial increase of the sales in the category.
