For women seeking a greater shine for the future, unbound by age,
both for their hair and in their lives.

New items now added to the aging care range.

Plarmia Hairserum On Sale August 28

Development Background

Plarmia is a new hair care brand created in February 2013 for protection against aging, before it becomes a problem. Women are now seeking even more effective and high value aging hair care to protect against thinning hair and changes in scalp.

Many people have trouble with their hair due to damage from coloring or perms in addition to aging. We have identified 2 distinct phenomena in this case—either the hair is too fluffy or too dry. We continue to respond to women’s heightened sense of beauty with our line-up of Shampoo/Treatment/Bath oil made from botanical oil beautifying serum and hair repair CMADK.
